NOTE: This work is Purpose-fully non-copyrighted, and may therefore be copied, reprinted, forwarded &/or gifted onward in whatever ways any of its readers deem fit. That having been said, the author would also like to remind anyone so doing that, just as these Truths have been given to all for free, so too should they be freely given to others – completely profitless; without any costs or conditions attached thereto.

To my dear readers:

Wise sayings & clever idioms seem to surround us in our everyday lives ... We hear quips of common sense from our parents in our homes, we hear proverbs of wisdom from reverends & rabbis in our places of worship, and we hear sayings of sage advice from our teachers in our schoolrooms.

And yet while these moral teachings do indeed provide us with fundamental understandings of ethics and right action; and while they do lend us guideposts of prudence & reason with which to navigate our journeys into everyday life, very few of these superficial morsels provide clear glimpses into the realm of the far deeper Truths that make our living more than merely survivable, but Meaning-full instead.

And it is with these deeper Truths in mind that I first offered this collection of "purified proverbs" online, and it is with them in mind that I offer them again to you now. Read one a day for an entire year, or read them straight through without pause from start to finish ... It really makes no difference how they are read, for each & every one of them is written in such a way as to allow you the reader to not only appreciate what I myself have learned from Living a Life of Love, but more importantly, to re-access your own innate, brilliant & profound sense of Knowing – the clarity of Comprehension of both life and your potential role in it that YOU have had within you since birth.

So without further ado, I humbly offer you the following "Maximized Maxims" ...

As allWays ... enJOY!
